

BAY AREA BIOTECH-PHARMA R USER MEETUP

By the Bay Area R User Group (BARUG) and the Bay Area Biotech-pharma Statistics Workshop (BBSW)

Hosts:

Ning Leng (Genentech)

Joseph Rickert (RStudio)

David Hurst (RStudio)

Robert Horton (Microsoft)

About the Bay Area useR Group

- Meeting monthly (more or less) since 2009
- One of the first R User groups
- Over 6,000 members
- If you would like to present at one of our meetings please send an abstract to joseph.rickert@rstudio.com

About the Bay area Biotech-pharma Statistics Workshop (BBSW)

- Established 2018, started by a community of statisticians working in biotech/pharma companies, academic institutions, and non-profit organizations
- 2-day local conference in Nov (~300 attendees)
- 7-8 Meetups in 2020
 - 5-6 in bay area, 1-2 in LA
 - Potential topics: R, Real World Data, Digital Health, novel endpoints

Visit bbsw.org or join our Meetup group (bbsw)

Call for Volunteers!!

- Meetup host/speaker/volunteer
- Conference volunteer

R-Meetup

By the Bay Area R User Group (BARUG) and the Bay Area Biotech-pharma Statistics Workshop (BBSW)

2020/02/20 (Thursday), Genentech Building 40 room 1B/C, 6:30-9pm

AGENDA

- 6:30 - Reception and Networking
- 7:00 - Announcements
- 7:10 - Tony Chang (Biomarin) - Validating R in the Biotech-Pharma Industry
- 7:30 - Doug Kelkhoff (Genentech) - Building Trust in Open Source Scientific Software:
Grassroots Software Validation for R
- 8:05 - Dan Putler (Alteryx)- Understanding Opioid Prescribing Behavior in England